

General Election October 2025

Candidates seeking election for municipal or school boards must now file an “Election Finance and Contribution Disclosure Statement”.

This must be submitted to the Returning Officer by March 1st of the year following a general election, or 120 days after a by-election.

The Local Authorizes Election Act section 147(4)(7) provides that:

147.4(7) A local jurisdiction must ensure that all documents filed under this section are made publicly available on the local jurisdiction’s website as soon as practicable in a partial or redacted form as necessary to ensure that the following information is not disclosed:

- (a) the mailing address of the candidate and of the candidate’s official agent;*
- (b) an address provided for a contributor, except the portion of the address that names a municipality or a province;*
- (c) any other contact information not required by this section but included on a document filed with a local jurisdiction.*

Attached herewith are the ‘Election Finance and Contribution Disclosure Statements’ for all candidates for the general municipal election of October 2025.
